BEVERLY EAVES PERDUE
GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 108

EXTENDING EXECUTIVE ORDERS NO. 103, 104 and 105

WHEREAS, I issued Executive Order No. 103 on August 24, 2011, declaring a state of emergency as a result of the approach of Hurricane Irene; and

WHEREAS, I issued Executive Order No. 104 on August 25, 2011, which waived the rules and regulations that limit the hours of service for operators of certain commercial vehicles and lifted weight restrictions on certain vehicles; and

WHEREAS, I issued Executive Order No. 105 on September 1, 2011, which facilitated the appropriate disposal and removal of vegetative debris from those individuals whose property was impacted by the storm; and

WHEREAS, the aforementioned Executive Orders contained a provision that they would be effective for thirty (30) days or the duration of the emergency, whichever is less; and

WHEREAS, the ongoing recovery efforts related to Hurricane Irene, including debris removal and disposal from those impacted areas, requires that these executive orders remain in place.

NOW, THEREFORE, by the power vested in me as Governor by the Constitution and laws of the State of North Carolina, IT IS ORDERED:

Executive Orders Nos. 103, 104, and 105 are hereby extended until midnight November 1, 2011.

This order is effective immediately.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in the City of Raleigh, this twenty-first day of September in the year of our Lord two thousand and eleven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and thirty-sixth.
