

LEADING IN THE AFTERMATH: STRATEGIES & WISDOM TO LEAD EFFECTIVELY IN TOUGH TIMES

With Lisa G. Gilbert

Public Safety Consultant, Expert Training Professional Strategic Leadership Coach & International Conference Speaker

WHEN: AUGUST 28-29, 2024 | TIME: 8am–5pm

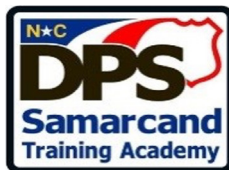

WHERE: SAMARCAND TRAINING ACADEMY: 3600 SAMARCAND ROAD, JACKSON SPRINGS, NC 27281

IN THIS 2-DAY WORKSHOP WE WILL HAVE AN INTENSIVE, INTERACTIVE, AND HIGH-LEVEL LEADERSHIP DISCUSSION WHERE WE WILL:

- Define leadership in today's work environment and learn practical wisdom truths and strategies to lead effectively through crisis situations.
- Review 7 types of leaders in the workplace and discuss 4 levels of leadership and how to effectively increase your level of influence in your organization.
- Compare and contrast the different focuses of management vs. leadership on a daily basis
- Understand the purposes of personal and professional relationships in the workplace.
- Identify leadership landmines and pitfalls to be avoided.
- Learn the necessity of effective delegation.
- Discover the "No-Nonsense" 6-step strategy of properly delegating authority.
- Understand team dynamics and how to build and lead your team to synergy.
- Uncover possible barriers of communication that can negatively impact a leader.
- Learn the "No-Nonsense" 4 step strategy to professionalize conflict in the workplace.
- Discover the power of habits on a leader's productivity.
- Debrief each attendee's Behavioral assessment to help them reflect and see "HOW" they do what they and do, and their impact on those around them.

Click here for more information about the instructor

This Training fully subsidized by NCDPS

RSVP by emailing: samarcandtrainingops@ncdps.gov