

NORTH CAROLINA ALCOHOL LAW ENFORCEMENT

WE'RE HIRING SPECIAL AGENTS

ALE's primary mission is to enforce the state's alcoholic beverage control, lottery, gambling and tobacco laws. Special agents are trained to have a detailed knowledge of the laws of arrest, alcohol and gaming; search and seizure and handling of firearms.

SALARY AND BENEFITS

Starting Salary: $49,516 annual salary for sworn officers. Stepped progression from beginning agent pay to $72,253 over a period of six years by providing increases of 6.5% per year.

Benefits:

- State law enforcement retirement plan
- State employee insurance coverage
- Supplemental retirement 401(k) plan
- Paid sick, vacation and holiday leave
- Unmarked, take-home vehicle
- Flexible work schedule
- Shift premium pay
- Military training leave
- Advancement potential through promotional opportunities

If you are up for the challenge and are interested in a law enforcement career with the North Carolina Alcohol Law Enforcement Division, please contact a recruiter at ALE.Employment@ncdps.gov.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's degree, associate degree and two years of sworn law enforcement experience or four years of sworn law enforcement experience
- Must be at least 21 years of age
- Must have, or be eligible for, a valid North Carolina driver's license
- Must have BLET certification

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

ncdps.gov/ALEcareers

An Equal Opportunity Employer

