(d) Category IV - Non-Uniformed Personnel With Minimal Offender Contact

Non-uniformed employees with minimal offender contact may include but are not limited to facility clerical, fiscal, administrative, and personnel staff, and region/central office staff. Each facility or section head will be responsible for making the final determination regarding employees classified in this category that should follow the appearance and grooming standards for Category IV employees. Whenever the nature of their duties requires Category IV employees to work within the confines of a facility or in direct contact with offenders, Category IV employees are expected to adhere to the same standards on jewelry, clothing, and makeup as Category III employees. Category IV employee should not be required to modify differences between Category II and Category IV employees such as hair length or fingernail length that would require a permanent modification.

Directors, Wardens and other North Carolina Prisons’ managers who provide management oversight of uniformed and non-uniformed personnel are vested with discretion in matters of grooming and personal appearance regarding the interpretation and application of these established guidelines. As designated by the Commissioner, the Executive Officer will serve as the contact person who Wardens and other North Carolina Prisons managers may contact to help them with the interpretation and application of this policy.
