

Assurance Concerning Polygraph Testing Prohibition for Victims of Alleged Sexual Assault

As an applicant for funding from the Office of Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice, via the Governor's Crime Commission, you are required to comply with 34 U.S. Code § 10451, Polygraph testing prohibition, which states that:

An agency must ensure that no law enforcement officer, prosecuting officer, or other government official shall ask or require an adult, youth, or child victim of an alleged sex offense as defined under Federal, tribal, State, territorial, or local law to submit to a polygraph examination or other truth telling device as a condition for proceeding with the investigation of such an offense.

Please sign and date the document below to certify that your agency does not require any victim of sexual assault to submit to a polygraph as a condition of investigating any alleged sexual assault offense. This certification will remain in effect for the performance period of this award.
