.0901 AUTHORITY

The NCDPS Prisons adheres to the North Carolina Administrative Code 12-NCAC-09 which sets the requirements for the Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards.

.0902 PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish a standard of training for the Division of Prisons (DOP) that will enhance employee professionalism, proficiency, development and consistence throughout the DOP.

.0903 POLICY

It is the policy of Prisons to provide opportunity for training for its employees. Training is designed to help employees develop their knowledge, skills and abilities so they may become more proficient in the performance of the duties of their current jobs and prepare for advancement within Prisons.

.0904 APPLICABILITY

This policy applies to all NC DOP Employees, Volunteers, and Contract Employees.

.0906 RESPONSIBILITIES

Providing adequate training of Prison employees can best be accomplished through the combined efforts of employees, supervisors, Division Management, the Office of Staff Development and Training and other sections of the Department of Public Safety. The following responsibilities should be recognized regarding employee training:

- (a) Employees – Prisons’ employees at all levels retain an obligation for their own development and education and it is expected that employees will advance their careers through appropriate self-education and self-improvement.
- (b) Managers and Supervisors – Managers and supervisors have the initial responsibility for ensuring that employees are properly trained to perform assigned job functions. In fulfilling this responsibility, managers and supervisors should identify the individual training needs of their employees and work with the employees to plan and implement needed training. Such plans may make use of on-the-job training, individual and group instruction by supervisors, formal training activities and rotational assignments to provide greater depth and a wider base of experience.
- (c) Prisons – Prisons has a responsibility to ensure that employees are trained to perform assigned job functions. It is responsible for assuring that training programs geared to specific division needs are planned, budgeted and provided and that its employees participate in these programs. Prisons works closely with the Office of Staff Development and Training, other sections of the Department of Public Safety and the Office of State Human Resources and utilizes to the fullest degree possible State universities, community colleges and the Department of Public Instruction in securing professional, management and vocational training to meet the training needs of its employees.

.0907 COORDINATION AND SUPERVISION OF TRAINING

1. The overall coordination, supervision, planning and annual review of training for the employees of Prisons shall be the responsibility of the Prisons Operations Manager for Training.
2. The Prisons Operations Manager for Training shall be assisted in the coordination of the training by Central Office Section Managers, Regional Staff, the Institution Correctional Training Specialists, staff of the North Carolina Department of Public Safety’s Office of Staff Development and Training, staff of the North Carolina Justice Academy and staff of the various member institution of the North Carolina Community College System.
3. At a minimum, the Prisons Operations Manager for Training and the Institution Training Specialists shall have completed the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission's General Instructor Training course or equivalent education, including a minimum of 40 hours of a Training for Trainers course and training experience.

.0908 TRAINING PLAN

- (a) A comprehensive staff development and training plan will be developed, evaluated and updated as needed, based on current job-related training needs. The training plan shall be developed by the In-Service Training Committee which shall be led by the Prisons Operations Manager for Training.
- (b) The training plan shall include ongoing formal evaluation of all pre-service, in-service and specialized training programs. At a minimum, this shall be accomplished by having trainees complete a course/class appraisal questionnaire at the conclusion of each training. Such questionnaires shall be reviewed and comments/suggestions shall be used in an ongoing formal evaluation of the training. A written report shall be completed at least annually and forwarded to the Training Committee for review.
- (c) Members of this committee will consist of Regional Staff, Institution Correctional Training Specialists, representatives of each major section of the Prisons Central Office, and staff of the North Carolina Department of Public Safety's Office of Staff Development and Training. Consideration should be given to position requirements, professional development needs, current correctional issues, and new techniques and technology. The Division Training Committee shall meet at least annually and written records of these meetings shall be forwarded to the Director of Prisons with a recommendation for appropriate action or remedy.
- (d) Each facility should develop an internal advisory training committee composed of the facility training coordinator and a representative from each of the facility's operational areas. The facility advisory training committee should meet quarterly to review the progress and discuss problems with the current training plan. A written report of this meeting will be forwarded to the Facility Head, whom will share any recommendations or concerns with the Region Office and the Prisons Operations Manager for Training.

.0909 TRAINING SPACE AND EQUIPMENT

Training locations and equipment shall be decided based upon the type of training and number of staff being trained. Training Space and equipment shall be made available to accommodate the type of training being provided and number of staff attending the training.

.0910 TRAINING(A) Orientation for Full Time Employees :

All new employees of the Division of Prisons shall receive a minimum of 40-hours of formalized orientation prior to receiving a job assignment. This training will be a combination of instructor led training as well as training through the Learning Management System (LMS). The sophistication level and amount of training should be based on the employee's need to know and their job assignment. At a minimum this training should include information on:

- DPS New Employee Orientation to include responsibilities and rights of employees

.0913 EXTERNAL TRAINING SOURCES

If approved by the Commissioner of Prisons, training that is related to an employee's job performance and responsibilities may be received from or provided by sources outside of Prisons. Such sources include, but are not limited to North Carolina Justice Academy, the OSHR, the member institutions of the NC Community College System, North Carolina Board of Nursing, the local Area Health Education Centers and/or other professional organizations which have been approved by the Division of Prisons.

.0914 CONTINUING EDUCATION

- (a) Employees are encouraged to continue their education and to utilize the resources of agencies external to the Department of Public Safety to attend approved professional meetings, seminars, training, and similar work-related activities. Agencies such as the National Institute of Corrections, the American Correctional Association, the U. S. Department of Justice, the North Carolina Office of State Human Resources, the North Carolina Justice Academy, the North Carolina Board of Nursing, the Area Health Education Centers, the member institutions of the NC Community College System and various other professional organizations and associations offer training that is appropriate for Prisons employees.
- (b) Prior to seeking approval for participation in seminars, workshops, etc. conducted or sponsored by agencies external to state governmental agencies, employees are responsible for exhausting the resources of Prisons, OSDT, other sections of the Department of Public Safety, OSHR, the Department of Public Instruction, the North Carolina Justice Academy, member institutions of the NC Community College System and the state university system. Prior approval must be obtained before employees attend any training seminars, workshops or conferences conducted by agencies external to DPS.

- (c) Employees in job classifications that require licensure or certification are responsible to ensure that such licensure or certification is kept current. Employees attending workshops, seminars, or other educational opportunities for the sole purpose of obtaining Continuing Education Units (CEU's) to maintain licensure or certification are responsible for the expenses of such workshops, seminars, or other educational opportunities. Prisons may grant training leave to attend these activities. Employees attending workshops, seminars, or other educational opportunities which award CEU's and the content of which is directly related to maintaining or improving knowledge, skills and/or abilities of the current job may be reimbursed for expenses incurred for the training.
- (d) Prisons may reimburse expenses consistent with current fiscal policy for employees to attend workshops, seminars, etc. which are conducted by organizations external to state agencies to correct documented performance deficiencies (rating of Does not Meet Expectations on the most recent work performance appraisal) when it is determined that (1) the deficiency can be corrected by training and (2) there are no essentially similar training programs offered by state agencies, including member institution of the community college system.
- (e) Prisons may reimburse expenses consistent with current fiscal policy for employees to attend job-related workshops, seminars, etc. designed to maintain or improve the knowledge, skill and ability of the current job that are conducted by organizations external to state agencies when deemed appropriate by the supervisor(s); however, there is no stated or implied obligation to do so.
- (f) Employees who are approved to participate in additional training such as professional meeting, seminars, and similar work-related activities may be approved for administrative leave based upon staffing levels and other considerations. The procedures for requesting approval for training conducted by agencies external to DPS are in Attachment B.

.0915 PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- (a) Prisons encourages membership and participation in criminal justice and allied professional associations and activities.
- (b) Providing an opportunity for the exchange of information and networking with other professionals in the correctional arena can best be accomplished by participation in job-related professional associations and organizations.
- (c) The following responsibilities should be recognized regarding employee membership and participation in professional associations and organizations:

(1) Employees

- (a) Prisons employees are responsible for any and all expenses associated with membership in any professional association or organization.
- (b) Employees may be approved to participate in leadership roles of professional organizations associated with the Department. Total participation in all organizations for all purposes (boards, committees, training conferences, etc.) is limited to a cumulative maximum of 10% (208 hours) of the employees work time, unless vacation or other appropriate leave is used. Leave request will be considered/approved by the employees' Section Manager/Facility Head in advance of the event. Employees must understand that their leave cannot be approved if their absence impedes the progress of the work unit.
- (c) Any request for participation in activities associated with professional organizations in excess of the 10% limit must be referred to the Commissioner of Prisons or designee for review and final decision.
- (d) Employees must not commit to serve on boards or committees or to hold office in professional associations or organizations that will require the expenditure of state funds without the express written approval of the Commissioner of Prisons or his/her designee.
- (e) Employee participation in committee meetings, planning meetings, work groups, etc. for a professional association or organization is not training and should not be documented as such in the employee time records.

2. Managers and Supervisors

Managers and supervisors should encourage and support employee membership and participation in job-related professional associations and organizations.

3. Prisons

- (a) Prisons encourage and supports employee membership and participation in job-related professional associations and organizations. Prisons have no obligation to provide financial support to any professional association or organization or to any member thereof.
- (b) Prisons may approve reimbursement of expenses consistent with current fiscal policy for employee members to attend conferences, seminars or workshops sponsored by job-related professional associations and organizations at the regional, state or national level; however, there is no stated or implied obligation to do so.

.0916 TRAINING LIBRARY AND RESOURCES

- (A) Employees are encouraged to take advantage of available library and reference services to complement the training and staff development program. Agencies such as the National Institute of Corrections, the American Correctional Association, the U.S. Department of Justice, the OSHR, the North Carolina Justice Academy, the North Carolina Board of Nursing, the Area Health Education Centers, the member institutions of the NC Community College System, the State University System, and various other professional organizations and associations offer library and reference material that is appropriate for Adult Facilities employees.

PROCEDURES FOR REQUESTING TRAINING EXTERNAL TO THE DEPARTMENT

Seminars, workshops and/or professional associations or conferences conducted by agencies external to the Department of Public Safety for which there is no expense involved or for which the employee pays the associated costs without expectation of reimbursement, use of a state-owned vehicle may be authorized.

1. Submission of Employee Training Request

Externally Based Training (Not based on an OSDT approved lesson plan) (In-State and/or Out of State Training)

Training Authorization Form CNTR 001a is to be used to request approval for participation in training, workshops or conferences. The CNTR 001a must be submitted without regard to the source of payment or expenses or the source of instruction and accompanied by the CNTR001 Travel Authorization form. The forms are available from the OSDT website: <http://internal.doc.state.nc.us/osdt/forms.htm>

The employee completes the CNTR 001a and CNTR 001 and submits forms to Supervisor who reviews and forwards to facility manager or designee if required for approval. The Location Manager/Training Coordinator reviews the CNTR 001a and approves/disapproves, provides the authorization signature and scans the form, email to OSDT@ncdps.gov or fax to 919-367-7180 Attention: External Training Request.

The CNTR 001a and CNTR 001 must be approved by Section/Location Head prior to being submitted to OSDT. Out of state request require Division Head approval and out of country request require approval by Secretary of Public Safety. Upon completion of approved training and in order to receive course credit, the employee must login to LMS, click on My Transcript, Add External Training and complete the required fields, click the Submit button and click on Mark Complete within 60 days. These forms may be found on the OSDT webpage.

2. Division Sponsored/Supported Training

If employees attending a Prisons sponsored/supported training event are to receive training credits, the sponsor of the event will have to submit a formal training proposal in advance of the event to establish a training course code and training credit in LMS. This must be accomplished by following the "Training Proposal Format" of OSDT. This format is available on OSDT website: <http://internal.doc.state.nc.us/osdt/training/TrainingProposalFormat.pdf>

3. Reimbursement of expenses:

Approved expenses will be reimbursed consistent with Fiscal Travel Policy. Form CNTR 003 is to be used for reimbursement request.

4. Documentation of training through LMS

To receive training credit, within 60 days upon completion of training, the employee must login to the LMS, click on My Transcript, Add External Training, complete/submit the form, click on Mark Complete, Submit. This notification of completion is sent by the system to OSDT for verification and applied to the employee's transcript as training completed.
